The Grandeur Advantage

Grandeur Flooring is an all-encompassing Canadian flooring company that specializes in the design, distribution, and servicing of elegantly-designed, quality-grade, solid, vinyl, engineered, and laminate flooring. We have established ourselves as a staple flooring supplier for both interior designers and renovators alike as we provide flooring solutions that are just as innovative as the interiors they are meant to fill. We offer a vast selection of various finishes, natural textures, and rich colours – from wire-brushed, hand-scraped, and saw-marked flooring to intricately designed signature looks – we've truly got it all.

Aneto - XXL Collection

We proudly abide by the industry and manufacturing standards for safety and quality so you can rest assured that our products will not harm your loved ones or the environment.

You can boost your home's resale value by installing new and fashionable vinyl, engineered, or laminate flooring.

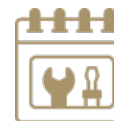

We pride ourselves on being on the cutting edge of new flooring technologies; from finishing to installation, you can be sure that we offer nothing but the best.

With 2 locations conveniently located in the GTA, we are fully accessible in the event that you require additional product knowledge or need to meet tight deadlines.

All of our flooring options come with a limited residential warranty of up to 35 years to keep you covered for the years to come.

We understand the hassle of installing new floors - which is why we offer the latest in installation technologies to help streamline the process as quickly and effectively as possible.

Organisations | Certifications

At Grandeur Flooring, we are a proud member of several flooring standard organisations such as the NWFA, NALFA and WFCA. We have also been certified by CARB Phase 2 compliant, Floor Score, Greenguard and FSC.

A New Chapter in Flooring Innovation

Grandeur Flooring is a Canadian distributor specializing in the design and distribution of high-end engineered hardwood, vinyl, laminate, and solid hardwood flooring. Our collections combine innovation, fashion, and function, offering a wide spectrum of colours, textures, and finishes, from wire-brushed, hand-scraped, and saw-marked surfaces to refined signature patterns such as herringbone & chevron.

Supported by a strong network of industry professionals, we stay closely connected to the rapidly evolving world of construction and interior design. This allows us to anticipate market trends and actively meet the needs of our residential and commercial clients with confidence.

Conveniently located in the heart of the GTA, our primary distribution center is fully stocked year-round, giving our customers the reliability and flexibility to complete even last-minute projects with ease. With Grandeur, you gain a partner dedicated not only to quality flooring but also to helping you bring your vision to life.

At Grandeur, every floor begins with high-quality lumber sourced from trusted regions around the world. We are committed to sustainable manufacturing practices that follow strict Canadian and international standards — ensuring durability, beauty, and environmental responsibility in every product we make. Our craftsmanship, industry experience, and forward-thinking design have made Grandeur a preferred choice among interior designers, builders, and architects across North America.

We proudly showcased this dedication at the IDS Show, where our innovative design approach and attention to detail earned us the 2025 IDS Best Booth Design Award, a recognition that reflects our passion for excellence and our leadership in the flooring industry.

Engineered Hardwood

Grandeur engineered hardwood is crafted for strength, stability, and long-lasting performance. Built with a bold multi-layer core, each layer is positioned in alternating directions to reinforce the overall structure and enhance durability. This advanced technique produces a more robust flooring system, allowing it to withstand the natural fluctuations of the Canadian climate while delivering exceptional resilience and enduring beauty in any environment.

Laguna Beach - Paradise Collection

Napa Valley - Regal Plus Collection

Backed by industry-leading certifications, Grandeur engineered hardwood meets NWFA standards for quality installation and performance, as well as CARB2, A+ Emission, and FloorScore requirements for healthier indoor air. These certifications reflect our commitment to safety, sustainability, and flooring you can trust for every space—ensuring each plank is crafted to perform beautifully and responsibly.

Carrara - Atelier Collection

The Art of Modern Hardwood

Crafted with generous 7-1/2" wide planks and a substantial 3.0mm veneer, the Atelier Collection showcases engineered hardwood at its most expressive. Each plank is meticulously hand-scraped and distressed, revealing layered textures, subtle undulations, and natural markings that give the surface a sense of harmony and individuality. The finish celebrates the beauty of imperfection, where craftsmanship is felt as much as it is seen.

Bronze Dust - Atelier Collection

More than just a floor, Atelier becomes a tactile experience under your feet. Its textured surface radiates light differently throughout the day, highlighting depth, warmth, and character in every movement. It grounds a space with confidence, telling a quiet story of time, artistry, and intention—bold yet refined, enduring yet deeply human.

Bronze Dust - Atelier Collection

New Year, New Home

In homes shaped by quiet mornings and busy evenings, Grandeur engineered hardwood becomes part of the everyday rhythm. Families move across it, children race down hallways, sunlight drifts across the grain, winter boots dry by the door—yet the floor remains steady and composed. Built with layers that strengthen one another, each plank adapts effortlessly to changing seasons and evolving spaces. Designers frequently appreciate its versatility, homeowners love the warmth it brings, and every texture—from light brushed to smoked, hand-scraped, and saw-marked—adds a story of its own.

Each format provides its own balance of durability, comfort, and style, making it easy to find the right fit for any interior.

A Floor That Lives With You

In a busy café, morning footsteps rush in with the scent of fresh coffee. Chairs slide, cups clink, and the door never stops opening—yet the laminate floor stays calm and steady. With a commercial-rated AC6 durability rating, it shrugs off daily hustle, keeping the space warm, inviting, and effortlessly beautiful.

At home, the story is quieter. Steam drifts from a warm shower, little feet run across the bathroom tile, and water splashes here and there, but the laminate remains unchanged. Its water-resistant core keeps moisture at bay, allowing every busy moment, every spill, every routine to simply continue. Whether in a lively commercial space or a peaceful family bathroom, laminate becomes part of the rhythm—strong, steady, and ready for every chapter of your day.

Laminate

Grandeur is proud to offer a laminate flooring collection designed for modern living. Each plank is crafted to deliver the beauty of natural wood with the practicality of advanced engineering, bringing style, strength, and long-lasting comfort to homes and commercial spaces alike. With a carefully curated selection of colours and textures, Grandeur laminate flooring offers a refined look that seamlessly enhances any interior.

Grandeur's laminate flooring sets a new standard for performance and reliability. Backed by internationally recognized certifications and engineered for long-lasting durability, our laminates feature outstanding water resistance and an AC6 wear rating—the highest in the industry. All products meet CARB2 and A+ FloorScore standards, supporting healthier indoor air quality and sustainable building practices. Delivering strength, style, and peace of mind, Grandeur laminate flooring is designed to elevate every space with performance you can trust.
